"ALL UNTRUE," SAYS PENROSE TO ROOSEVELT

Declares the Falsity of the Statement Made in Washington That He Exposed the Conspiracy
at a Banquet.

OUT OF THE COUNTRY AT THE TIME OF THE "INCIDENT."

Pennsylvania Senator Hotly Asserts that He Is No Party to Any Such Plot and that He Has Always Supported Roosevelt.

PHILADELPHIA, April 5.—United States Senator Penrose had this to say to-day about the published report that he told at a dinner the story of a "rich men's conspiracy" to prevent the selection of President Roosevelt's choice of a successor to himself:

"It is absolutely an untruth. I have never said any such thing. It is all untrue. I have always been a supporter of and believer in President Roosevelt's administration and all its policies."

The Senator was asked: "Have you ever heard of a $5,000,000 fund to prevent President Roosevelt naming his successor?"

"No, absolutely not."

"Have you ever heard of the combination termed the 'rich men's conspiracy' to thwart the President in the development of his policies?"

"No, I have never heard of any such combination and have no knowledge of it."

"Did you attend a dinner of such a character as was mentioned to-day in the Washington despatches?"

"No, I never attended a dinner where such a subject was mentioned. I could not have done so, anyhow, for I just came back from a West Indian cruise with Secretary of the Navy Metcalf and Senator Flint, of California. I arrived in Philadelphia Tuesday night after a month's trip. During that time I did not follow the newspapers or keep in touch with affairs in the United States."

The statement that a "noted United States Senator," intimated to be Penrose, was the source of the exposure, came directly from President Roosevelt in a statement to correspondents yesterday. Consequently Penrose puts the lie up to the President.

"No Names Mentioned," Says Secretary Loeb.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Secretary Loeb declared to-day that no names were mentioned at the White House yesterday when reference was made to some public man who had been present at a dinner and had told the story of the alleged combination to accomplish the defeat of the President's policies in the coming Presidential campaign.

This dinner was a comparatively recent occurrence. Secretary Loeb

BENNINGS RACE TRACK, April 5.—
Favorites went down in quick succession at Benning's to-day, and bookmakers who had decided to return to New York reconsidered and figured that it was not such a bad game after all.
Grassie was the first favorite to lose.
He had no speed at all and was outside the money. The straggler took to the front in the stretch and won by a wide margin from Golf Ball.
In the fourth race the wise ones plunged on Ben Cole and looked him down to even money, but double the odds. He was a good horse, but he was not a winner. The fourth race was a close one.
Bowling Bridge, Takes Fifth.
In the fifth race Legersdmain out on the line, and the stretch with Venus
Near, 1 to 5 for place, 2, Legersdmain 3.

GIANTS HOME; TO PLAY VALE TO-MORROW

McGraw's Men in Fine
Shape After Long
Training Trip.

Brown as berries, and looking in the best of condition, Johnny McGraw and his band of ballplayers, the Giants, arrived in town shortly before three o'clock this afternoon and went right up to the Polo Grounds for an hour of practice, running around the field and batting out. The team has just completed their long journey to Los Angeles, Cal., where they got into playing condition for the coming season.

That the trip was a successful one is shown by the condition of the players. Every one of them has lost considerable weight as a consequence of the hot weather in California, and all are in better condition right now than they have been for many years on the eve of the opening of such a great baseball campaign as the national game is bound to be this year.

The Giants have been some close to five weeks, and during that time they have traveled over 800 miles. When the train bearing the Giants pulled into the Pennsylvania Railroad depot a few minutes after 2:30 P. M. the players started to jump out before the train came to a full stop. They were anxious to get home to New York again, and did not care any time in getting away from the long journey.

A large crowd of ballman car porters, baggage men and other employees of the railroad were on hand to meet the McGraw and his men, and as the Giants walked down the station platform they were surrounded by the crowd, who began to yell out for McGraw, McGraw, McGraw, and the rest of the players. McGraw Taylor was given a great reception by the crowd and he answered the compliment by waving his hands and his hat to the crowd. All of the players were in the party with the exception of Egan, Howman, McGraw and Egan, who were permitted to stop off for a day to visit friends, as Secretary-Treasurer Fred Knowles said.

Is there any truth in the report from Chicago that Mike Donlin has quit the Giants and will never play ball again? McGraw said: "I don't know anything about it. Donlin was given permission to go see his wife in Chicago, and I am sure that he will report again in a day or so," replied McGraw.

"Did the trip loosen the players?" "All my men are in fine condition, and I am sure we will make a grand showing this year," replied McGraw.

The Giants will practice at the Polo Grounds for ten hours to-morrow morning and in the afternoon line up against the Yale College team. They will be out through their usual practice every day until the opening game of the season next Thursday with the Philadelphia Club at the Polo Grounds.

Makes Up His Mind to Let it Stand and the Thaw Murder Trial Will Be Resumed Next Monday

CASE WILL PROBABLY
CLOSE ON THURSDAY

Delmas to Begin His Address on Monday,
and to Continue Through Two Days—

Jerome to Sum Up on Wednesday
—Verdict Due Thursday.

After proclaiming in court and out that he would fight to the last legal ditch in his efforts to prevent a confirmation of the lunacy commission's report pronouncing Harry Thaw sane, District-Attorney Jerome suddenly abandoned his campaign of threats and publicity this afternoon with the admission that he could nowhere find a source of appeal under the statutes.

As a result the case of Thaw for the murder of Stanford White will go on Monday from the point where Mr. Jerome broke it off more than two weeks ago with his declaration that the prisoner's lawyers were deliberately forcing a lunatic into a trial for his life.

It is learned that District-Attorney Jerome finally decided to reconsider his determination of yesterday to ask the Appellate Division for a writ of prohibition restraining Justice Fitzgerald from confirming the report of the lunacy commission which held that Thaw is sane, after he had consulted several eminent judges.

As soon as court reconvenes on Monday and the jury has been polled, Delmas, the senior counsel for the defense, will announce that the Thaw side has no more witnesses to call in sur-rebuttal. Mr. Delmas will be prepared to go directly ahead with his summing up. The famous California barrister expects to speak for two whole days, or until Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Jerome will sum up for the prosecution on Wednesday. Justice Fitzgerald will probably charge the jurors on Thursday morning, and by Thursday night Thaw's lawyers expect that he will be a free man.

In any event the greatest criminal trial in the history of New York County will almost certainly be ended before the end of next week. Thaw's attorneys will fight bitterly against any attempt of the District-Attorney to continue the tactics of delay which have characterized the Prosecutor's handling of the case from the time the work of choosing the jury began on Jan. 11.

Lawyers Against Jerome.
Last night many well-versed lawyers expressed the opinion that under the statutes there was no form of appeal open to the District-Attorney in the lunacy proceedings. Nevertheless Mr. Jerome and his assistant, Mr. Garvan, still seemed full of their purpose when they reached the Criminal Courts Building to-day. Armed with a transcript of yesterday's proceedings before the Justice and many law books, they went straight to the rooms of the Bar Association. From there at noon Mr. Jerome journeyed to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court and was shown into the Justice's chamber. In a little while he returned to his offices. Shortly thereafter the announcement was forthcoming that the prosecution would make no further fight against the action of Justice Fitzgerald in the matter of the report of the lunacy commission.
